Hello Todd, Nance and Jenny,

I have tried to reach out a few times and understand you have been out or are covered up with other matters. I wanted to share with you that we recently received approval from Laramie County for the Switchgrass Industrial Park where the data center/power facility will be located. At this point, we would like to move forward with the discussion regarding the applicability of the need for industrial citing coverage and if we need anything formal from the DEQ. Based upon what we can tell, we feel the data center and the power facility, which is behind the meter and a dedicated power facility to support the data center, are exempt based upon the rules. As such, we would like to discuss the process to confirm that opinion and are happy to come visit in person to discuss any process that is required or suggested. In the essence of time, if we do not have to go through a formal determination process, that would be our preference and can rely upon our interpretation if that is allowable. That would suffice on our end. However, we would like some informal guidance on that front before we act and if there is a way to get some sort of letter from the DEQ that helps us firm up that opinion, that would be great. Our interest is to not create any unnecessary paperwork, or work, for the DEQ or us and to move the project along as quickly as we can to bring this development to the State of Wyoming.

As always, we appreciate your assistance and facilitation of helping us conform to and understand the DEQ's rules and regulations.
